

THE MORAL OF THE STORY

- We all fall at some point in our walk with Christ, how will you respond to the fall is everything!

GET STARTED

- Share a story of a time in your life when you allowed peer pressure to control a decision?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

How deep do you want to take your Group? Choose from these questions to lead your discussion.

1. Take turns reading LUKE 22:54–62. For what reason did Peter follow Jesus “at a distance”? What do the actions of Peter in this story reveal about his personal character?
2. What would make Peter deny that he knew Jesus, when earlier he said he was willing to die for Him?
3. In what circumstances are other people able to influence us to act in ways we know are different than God wants for us? Share an example
4. Leaders read Luke 22:47-53- How was Peter’s denial of Christ different from Judas’s betrayal of Jesus?
5. How should we respond when we fail to obey Christ? How would you define true repentance?
6. What did Jesus do the third time Peter denied knowing Him? (22:61)
7. In what ways has the Lord made you aware of a sin in your life in the past? How did you respond? How SHOULD we respond to the convicting voice of God?
8. Why was Peter so upset and bitter about his actions?
9. What could you do this week to strengthen your stand for Christ in the face of pressure from others? How does Easter relate to this?
10. In the future, how could you encourage another believer who has done something wrong but shows a willingness to repent?
11. This is the LAST week of questions- talk about the details of your group party and outreach schedule.

FOR FURTHER READING

- 2 Timothy 1:8
- Memory verse: Luke 14:11- "For whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."
- Who can say the verse? Leaders go first and reward them!